

Shenendehowa Hall of Distinguished Alumni - 2015 Inductee

Alan Safran

1976 Graduate

Mr. Safran has served as the Deputy Commissioner of the Massachusetts Department of Education, Executive Director of Match Corps and President of Match Tutors. As an innovator and pioneer in education, Mr. Safran has lead reforms in urban and underserved schools resulting in unprecedented improvements in the education and success of thousands of children. He has sparked the adoption of tutoring programs that are changing the futures and trajectory of students across the nation. Mr. Safran also served as a humanitarian teaching in a Cambodian refugee camp, as the Spokesman for the United States Senate Foreign Relations Committee and Senate Arms Control Observer Group, and as a successful prosecutor in his role of Assistant District Attorney in New York City.